

Education

Sector: Education, Child Development, Family Services

What is it?

This pathway prepares students for professional or learning support positions in education, prekindergarten through grade twelve. Students study human development; standards, regulations, and codes; positive guidance and counseling techniques; age-appropriate and grade-appropriate learning strategies; learning theories; and standards-based curriculum and instructional design. Students can apply and practice their knowledge and skills at a variety of elementary and secondary education sites.

Projected Employment: 25,080

Occupations

Elementary School Teachers

Average Salary: $80,100

People in this profession value relationships, achievement, and independence. Being bilingual is an asset in this profession.

Special Education Teachers, Elementary

Average Salary: $80,370

This field requires additional training to work with students with hearing or vision impairments, or individuals with specific learning disabilities.

Middle School Teachers

Average Salary: $75,660

Middle school teachers may need additional credentialing in subject-specific areas, such as math or social science.

Courses in This Pathway

- Introduction to Child Development, Education, and Family Services
- Intermediate Child Development
- Advanced Child Development

Available at Mountain View
High School

Teacher Prep Academy

Scan the QR code for more photos of the Mountain View Education pathway students!