Financial Services

Industry Sector: Business and Finance

What is it?

Students investigate the field of financial management, including how it is impacted by industry standards as well as economic, financial, technological, international, social, legal, and ethical factors. Students formulate and interpret financial information for use in financial management decision-making, such as compliance and risk management. This pathway may include programs of study for accounting, banking, securities and investments, and other financial specializations.

Projected Employment: 11,990

Occupations

Accountant
Average Salary: $84,430
Analyze financial information and prepare financial reports to determine or maintain record of assets, liabilities, profit and loss, tax liability, or other financial activities within an organization.

Financial Managers
Average Salary: $157,480
Direct and coordinate financial activities of workers in a branch, office, or department of an establishment, such as branch bank, brokerage firm, risk and insurance department, or credit department.

Loan Officers
Average Salary: $78,940
Evaluate, authorize, or recommend approval of commercial, real estate, or credit loans. Advise borrowers on financial status and payment methods. Includes mortgage loan officers and agents, collection analysts, loan servicing officers, and loan underwriters.

Courses in This Pathway

- Introduction to Business and Finance
- Intermediate Financial Services and Banking
- Intermediate Financial Services Management and Business Economics
- Advanced Financial Services Business Accounting

Made City Money Event o/o Assemblywoman Blanca Rubio
Scan the QR code for pictures of an interactive financial literacy event held October 2019

Available at All Comprehensive High Schools
Entrepreneurship Lessons
El Monte students build mock businesses.