2. Short description of course which may also be used in the registration manual:

English 1 Lab is designed to continue the development of student skills in reading and writing and serves as a reinforcement class for English 1P. The class is based on the California State Content Standards for (9th/10th grade) English Language Arts. In addition, writing strategies and California High School Exit Exam preparation are integrated into the curriculum.

3. Describe how this course integrates the schools ESLRS (Expected Schoolwide Learning Results): (these may be replaced with site ESLRS)

- Academic Achievers: Students will further develop reading and writing skills.
- Critical Thinkers: Students will use critical thinking skills in their reading analysis and their writing assignments.
- Technology Competent Users: Students will use technology to research topics and create essays.
- Ethical, Respectful Individuals: Students will be respectful while working in diverse collaborative groups.
- Active Community Participants: Students will develop skills that will increase their ability to participate in the community.

4. Describe the additional efforts/teaching techniques/methodology to be used to meet the needs of English language learners:

   - Study Skills and Cornell notes will be emphasized
   - RESEARCH BASED strategies and activities will take place to assist students in learning about the ways they best learn (STRP strategies, AVID, Write Path, Marzano strategies).
   - Prior knowledge is used to connect existing knowledge with knowledge to be learned.
   - Vocabulary development will be emphasized.
   - Graphic organizers such as pictures, realia, and audiotapes will be utilized during instruction in order to provide various learning modalities for the students.

5. Describe the interdepartmental articulation process for this course:

   Interdepartmental articulation is on-going and driven by a common need to improve literacy skills school-wide.

6. Describe how this course will integrate academic and vocational concepts, possibly through connecting activities. Describe how this course will address work-based learning/school to career concepts:

   Students will be made aware that the skills taught and practiced in this course are crucial in the work force in all careers. Setting career goals and creating educational plans will be discussed and addressed in various assignments.

Objectives of the course: Extend the English 1P curriculum so that students are able to access proficiency in reading and writing

- Students will receive support to master the California English Content Standards with an emphasis on developing writing skills and achieving a C or better in their core English course.
- Students will write and speak with a command of standard English conventions.
- Students will produce persuasive, expository, analytical, narrative, and technical writings.
- Students will produce persuasive, expository, analytical, narrative, and technical writings. The writings will reflect an understanding of audience and purpose.

Unit Detail including projects and activities including duration of units (pacing) plan:

The basic weekly activity component will consist of completing the regular English 1P curriculum. In addition to those requirements the Lab portion of the class will consist of a regimented schedule of reading and various activities designed to foster development in English language. The first semester will take place with a weekly schedule that is consistent and tightly structured. Each day will provide a reading duration of at least twenty minutes. On each of those days, students should be given five to find all materials and do any changing of their books. With the remaining twenty minutes of class, students will do some type of linguistic activity each day of the week. Each day of the week should also find students responding to their reading in their journals. This will help students learn the basic principals of story development and learn to track those elements in their own reading.

Schedules for individual teachers may vary but should consist of the basic categories: Reading Strategies; Writing Conventions; Grammar Exercises; Essay Development; Vocabulary Development; and Test Preparation. By using these categories creatively, teachers can use their own techniques and devices to enhance student learning.

In addition, students will be reading two and a half hours for homework a week. This reading assignment is verified with a parent sign off sheet. On the sign off the parent should provide the teacher with a phone number for communications of any concerns or positive feedback.
As the year advances students read books in small groups and have book discussions. This process teaches them how to speak orally about the books they read. Students complete various literary projects when they complete books, and all books that they finish get recorded so the teacher can monitor the amount of pages read.

As the second semester begins, student will start to feel more comfortable with each other and various supplemental activities will be inserted into the curriculum. Activities can be, but are not limited to:

- College preparedness activities
- Watching and responding to one movie related to school success if time permits (Dead Poet’s Society, Hoop Dreams, Stand and Deliver, Rudy, etc)
- Note taking activities
- Book circles
- Projects based on their reading
- Vocabulary development games.

References to State Frameworks:

All standards can be found in all freshman English texts and are outlined in the EMUHSD Curricular Map for English 1P with a more comprehensive description in the EMUHSD Power Standards – Unwrapped document.

Student performance standards:

Students will participate in class discussions, complete classroom assignments, home assignments, and assessments. The following is the grading scale used for overall performance:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Percentage</th>
<th>Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>90 - 100%</td>
<td>A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>80 - 89%</td>
<td>B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>70 - 79%</td>
<td>C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>60 - 69%</td>
<td>D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Below 60%</td>
<td>F</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Since the purpose of the lab course is to reinforce the English core course and is designed as an extension of the core course, the grade the student receives in the Lab course and the English core course should not vary by more than one LETTER grade as these courses are taught by the same teacher (lab and core course).

Evaluation/assessment/rubrics

Participation, reading logs, assignments, CFBAs scores from the core class, and essays will be used for assessment purposes in the lab.

In addition, 5 required assignments that must include:

- Autobiographical Narrative
- Compare and Contrast
- Research Report

All writing will use the Holt rubric for assessment.
Include minimal attainment for student to pass course

Students must attain an average of 60% in all coursework, and must pass the English 1P class in order to receive a passing grade in the Lab. The Lab grade and the English core course grade should not vary by more than one LETTER grade. Each of the following account for 25% of the grade:

- Homework / class work / participation (attendance)
- Writing assignments
- Other assignments and assessments
- Essays with rubric
